ESOL in the Community

Provided / Operated by:
Yorkshire English School (YES)

YES offer a lively, engaging, fun and challenging ESOL course, aimed at ESOL learners in the local community wishing to practice and improve their English fluency and functional ability.
This means: learning how to become more confident in everyday english use, in talking and writing to people in your daily life, making friends, engaging in conversations, improving your reading and listening, and doing team work. Unlike some other types of conversation and ESOL, YES aims to...
