Learning for Employability

Provided / Operated by:
Safety First Community Training Centre

We assist adults with a variety of skills that helps to make them 'work ready'. In addition to our Health and Safety and Work Smart modules, we also deliver Functional Skills; English, Maths and ICT to develop reading and writing skills, as well as gaining confidence with speaking and listening.
These courses will help you gain important skills to allow you to do well in the workplace. They are open to a wide range of community learners, including people who use English as their first language, as well...
